Teen Closet

The Teen Closet is the result of a joint effort of the Foster Parent Association of Spokane and Robyn Nance of KXLY. They offer teen clothing for any teen connected with Children's Administration in Region 1. Visit their website at www.teencloset.org or call (509)534-1151 to arrange an appointment. Donations of new or gently used clothing are accepted.

Now open in the Spokane Valley off Argonne at 9212 E. Montgomery, #302. This new location is bigger and can serve more families at a time. Families are welcome from throughout the region by appointment. More information on their website www.teencloset.org. Open the second Saturday of each month from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Referrals by social worker must be submitted first. Call 534-1151 for referrals and information!

Julianne's Prom Closet

Julianne's Prom Closet is open by appointment only and is at 218 N. Bernard St., in the basement of the Fruci Building in Spokane.

The Prom Closet accepts donations of quality new and gently used formal wear, as well as shoes, jewelry, purses and wraps.

Call 939-6324 to set up an appointment or make a donation.
